

The opening day at the races failed to draw as large a society crowd as might have been expected, owing largely to the fact that it was the regular Country club day, and also to the fact that the fine weather had enticed many of our respected citizens to make a quick getaway in their motors to spend a few days of the simple life in the country. The attendance during all next week, it is predicted, will be very much better as far as the smart set is concerned.

An important event of the June season—probably the first large outdoor affair—will be the charity bridge tea at the Country club on June 14. The hostesses for the afternoon will be the ladies of the Hospital Aid society, and the affair is already being planned to be one of the largest ever given. The directors of the Country club have kindly given the use of the club, and all who enjoyed a similar affair last year will look forward to this one with keen anticipation.

There has been quite a lasting sensation in high society locally since the glimpse behind the footlights early in the week. As the stage beauty remarked: "It ain't often I get to meet the real swells. Oh, of course, I meet the men, but not their lady friends." She was a revelation in a high art, and it was really the best time the smart people have found for so, these many days.

The first warm days have induced those who can afford it to turn their faces countryward, and before many weeks the country homes around Salt Lake will all be open for the season and in their usual business of entertaining angels—and others over the week ends. The Walker farms are already being put in shape for the summer time, and Oakwood, the Holmes' country place is a bower of beauty.

CURRENT EVENTS IN SALT LAKE SOCIETY

Mrs. H. C. Hoffman was the hostess yesterday at a bridge tea given in honor of Mrs. E. A. Wall, when about a score of friends were entertained. Five tables of the game were played, and prizes awarded the winner at each, besides a special prize for the guest of honor. At the tea following Mrs. Vaughn Paul poured coffee, and Miss Olive Wall and Miss Naomi Hoffman assisted. Later Miss Eunice Belden sang several numbers which were much enjoyed by the guests. The house was gay with spring flowers in all the rooms except the dining room, and here the table was all in pink and white.

Miss Jean Spencer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer, whose marriage to Morrill Farr takes place in June, will be the guest of honor at a number of events within the next few weeks. Mrs. Stanley Clawson gives a luncheon on Tuesday for her. Miss Veda Beebe will entertain tomorrow afternoon for her, and Miss Grace Grant, another young June bride. Mrs. Grace Woolley entertains at a dinner for her and Mr. Farr on June 9, and also at a tea for Miss Spencer on June 16, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Clive and Miss Hazel Hanson will entertain at cards on June 5 for both the young people.

Miss Sarah G. Spalding was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a most enjoyable tea from 4 to 6 o'clock to meet her guests, the Misses Du Puy of Erie. The home was bright with spring flowers, quantities of lilacs decorating the rooms. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George M. Bacon, Mrs. William C. Jennings, Mrs. M. L. Ritchie and Miss Colburne, who took turns pouring tea and coffee, and also by the Misses Casley, Maguire, Humphrey, Corbin and Brooks.

HERALD BACHELOR CLUB No. 6

HERBERT FOSTER SAVAGE.

Mr. Savage has often been taken for a married man, but he is still in the realm of his happy bachelor days. Blessed with what has been called the fatal gift of beauty, he has yet retained all the ingenuousness of youth and remains absolutely untouched by Cupid's darts, and such things. Beauty is not his only gift, however, for Mr. Savage is a poet of rare ability, having won three prizes of $3 1-3 cents each in the newspaper contest for home-made poetry last year. Mr. Savage may be seen almost any day on Main street between business hours, strolling along in pleasant, easy style.

was enjoyed by a large number of the members and their friends, and the table d'hôte dinner preceding likewise drew a great many. Numerous small dinners were given Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gemmell entertaining a party of a half dozen, and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson one of twelve. The others were smaller in number, most of them being made up only of foursores.

Miss Florence Culmer entertained about a score of friends yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea for Miss Carrie Atkins and Miss Agnes Patterson, two of the June brides. Five tables of the game were played and later Mrs. Frank T. Roberts poured at the tea following, and Mrs. Culmer assisted her daughter. Pink and white, with the green of ferns, made an effective and summery decoration for the tea table.

Mrs. Nicholas A. Robertson entertained a few friends yesterday at the John Drew matinee, followed by a tea served at a downtown cafe, where pink sweet peas in profusion formed the decorations. The guests were Mrs. M. T. Bailey, Mrs. Clarence Post, Mrs. F. E. McGurran, Mrs. June Donnell, Miss Minnie Sadler, Miss Anna Adams and Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence.

Word comes from abroad that Mrs.

Graham F. Putnam and her son, John, and Miss Alice Martin sailed last Tuesday from Trieste for home. They will stop off at Palermo and will probably reach New York about June 8. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Martin will meet Miss Martin in Columbus, O., and they will spend two months there with friends before returning. Mrs. Putnam and John will probably come directly home.

Mrs. C. Berkhoel leaves today for New York, where she will join her daughter, Miss Agatha Berkhoel, and whence they will sail about June 10 for a stay of some time abroad. In Paris Miss Berkhoel will continue her work under some of the leading vocalists, and she will be the guest of Miss Van Sassoil, the young harpist, who will be remembered by Salt Lakeers because of her having been here with Melba.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Burton entertained about thirty young people last evening at a delightful frolic and dance for Miss Jean Spencer and her fiancé, Morrill N. Farr. The floors were cleared in the large rooms on the main floor and here, through several hours of thorough enjoyment, the young people made merry. Late in the evening a supper was served in buffet style.

Mrs. Andrew S. Rowan entertained a half dozen friends yesterday at the Salt Lake theatre matinee in compliment to Miss Davis. Later Mrs. Rowan and her guests went to the Rowan home at the post for tea, when a number more dropped in to enjoy tea in the late afternoon hours.

Mrs. E. M. West entertained on Friday at a luncheon followed by bridge, when eight of her friends were present. The decorations were all in the spring fruits, and place cards done in the same were at the table. The guests were Mrs. A. S. Peters, Mrs. C. H. Heritage, Mrs. H. O. Sanford, Mrs. H. W. Sherwood, Mrs. W. W. Rivers, Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. J. W. Bardwell.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer entertained last evening at an informal dinner at the University club in compliment to Bishop and Miss Spalding and their guests, the Misses Du Puy of Erie. The decorations were in lilacs, and all the table appointments carried out the same idea.

Miss Olive Ferris and Miss Winnie Webb entertained yesterday afternoon at a delightful Kensington for Miss Irma Eberhardt, another of the June brides. The rooms were fragrant with lilacs, and the thirty friends spent an hour or so with thimbles before a supper was served.

Mrs. C. E. Loose and her daughter, Miss Fay Loose of Provo, expect to leave early in the month for a stay of a year or so in Europe.

Colonel and Mrs. Arthur Williams and their household, including the Misses Williams and Miss Davis, will leave within a few days for San Francisco, whence they sail with the colonel's new regiment—the Twentieth—on June 5 for the Philippines.

Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson and her children will leave early in June for New Haven to spend the summer on the New England coast. General and Mrs. J. Milton Thompson will be at home for the summer in the Thompson home on D street.

Mrs. Ernest R. Eldredge of Portland, Ore., is here visiting Mrs. C. A. Eldredge and her family for a time. With her is Miss Katherine Wintler of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch of Baltimore left last evening for California to spend some time on the coast. They will go north from there, and may go on to Alaska before returning.

Dr. E. A. Tripp leaves this morning for Chicago on business. He will be joined there early in June by his daughter, Miss Gwendolene Tripp, and they will return together about the middle of the month.

Brig T. Cannon has gone to California on a short business trip.

Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Elwood Mattson, Mrs. H. M. Rowe, Mrs. William

Van Allen, Mrs. I. Lester Reynolds and Mrs. R. S. Joyce of Ogden formed a party of friends who came down for the races yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Montague Ferry left yesterday in their big motor car for Mount Pleasant to spend Sunday, taking Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells with them.

Mrs. Arthur Bird and Mrs. J. Frank Judge expect to leave during the week for Pasadena to attend the McGillivray-Salisbury wedding.

Miss Charlotte Holmes will entertain next Saturday at a luncheon, followed by a matinee party at the Colonial, for Miss Emma Quigley.

Mrs. W. H. Eccles and Mrs. A. W. Walker of Ogden have issued invitations to a great many Salt Lake friends for a tea to be given on Tuesday next.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Kirtley will entertain at a dinner on Tuesday for Miss Eudora Daly and Mark W. Lillard.

Miss Lena Briggs has returned from California and has been spending the past two days in the city with friends.

Mrs. Frank Jennings is now at home at 166 North State street.

Mrs. A. S. Bower will entertain at a large luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday, June 2, for Miss Eudora Daly.

Dr. Thomson, the new medical captain at the post, has already been ordered away from there, and will leave some time during the coming week for his new post in Missoula, Mont. Mrs. Thomson and her daughter, Miss Gale, accompany him. His place will be filled by Dr. Stallman, a medical reserve man, who is already at the post, stationed in the bachelor quarters.

The Utopia club meets Wednesday with Mrs. George W. Read at 621 Second avenue, instead of with Mrs. E. A. Wall.

The teachers of the Hamilton school entertained on Wednesday afternoon at a lavender luncheon and kitchen shower for Miss Claire Stevenson, one of their number, whose marriage to Landrum Victor Thistle takes place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Smith have just returned from a two weeks' visit in southern California.

Mrs. R. F. Wineman and Miss Wigman of the Covey apartments gave an entertainment on Friday afternoon for eleven little girls in honor of the eleventh birthday of Muriel Brennan. The

Have they lost their charm?

We refer to your jewelry (Rings, Brooches, Bracelets, etc.). Much jewelry is purchased for the flash it makes; some is purchased because of its ornate settings, and then some for its genuine merit and intrinsic value. Most people have some of all sorts and are tired of the settings and general effects and many do not realize that the settings are the features that make jewels worth while and that if some piece is "ugly" it is because of the setting. Look over all your jewels, bring them to us and let us show you how they may be made beautiful. Our shop is unexcelled in equipment and our workmen have no equals in Utah.

We make and repair everything in gold, silver and platinum, repair watches, clocks and all complicated mechanisms, engrave anything, anywhere and do all properly.
